

LETTERS FROM TWO STATES

New London County
NORTH STONINGTON

Special Services to Close Sunday Evening—Tags for Go-to-Church Sunday Distributed—Lafayette Main Leaves Case.

The special union meetings have been continued through their second week with a good attendance and much interest. The preachers of the week have been Rev. S. M. Cathart of Westerly, Rev. C. R. McNally of New London, Rev. F. C. A. Jones of Westerly, Rev. W. R. Stewart of Stamford and Rev. F. E. Blakeman of Cromwell. The singing, which has been inspiring, has been led by one of the local pastors, Rev. F. M. Hollister. The series will close Sunday evening with preaching by Rev. A. R. Costa, D. D. of Hartford.

Go-to-Church Sunday.

Next Sunday is to be observed in town as Go-to-Church day. Go-to-Church tags are being distributed and many are wearing them.

Dana-Hewitt Invitations.

Invitations have been received here for the wedding of Thomas Denison Hewitt and Miss Henrietta Silliman Tama on April 25 in Grace church, Brooklyn, N. Y. The bride-elect is the elder son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas H. Hewitt, summer residents of North Stonington. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford W. Caswell and infant daughter, Laura. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Caswell.

Hattie White, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. Frank White, has nearly recovered from scarlet fever and the child is now out of quarantine. The Wheeler family, who opened the spring term Tuesday.

Miss Dora T. Maher, preceptress of the Wheeler school, spent the vacation visiting relatives in Providence and Massachusetts.

George A. Pendleton has been ill with a severe attack of grip. Arthur B. Chambers, after spending two weeks with his brother, Rev. G. H. Chambers, has gone to New Hampshire.

Levy, Lucian Drury attended the April meeting of the New London county Baptist ministers conference held at Waterbury Monday.

A family named Johnson has moved into the tenement house of Mrs. D. W. Bissell.

Town Board Sustained.

The state board of education has ruled on the pending case of George F. Main Feb. 2 in regard to school transportation for his children, he having taken exception to the ruling of the town board in the matter. The state board sustains the action of the town board.

SHUNOC

Plans for Easter Concert—Aid Society Serves New England Supper.

The Second Baptist Sunday school will give an Easter concert, Sunday at the close of the preaching service in the church.

R. B. Wheeler was in Boston, Wednesday, in the interests of his summer trade. Mr. Wheeler has an office in that city.

Nathan F. Culver has returned from a trip to Chicago.

Mrs. Mary Wells Wheeler is entertaining a lady from New Bedford, Mass.

A number of local residents are attending the annual meetings of the churches in North Stonington village.

New England Supper.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the Second Baptist church gave a New England supper and entertainment at the church rectory, Tuesday evening. Many attended and the affair was a decided success.

Sunday services were well attended by the pastor Rev. W. Collins, gave his hearers a fine sermon.

The school is having a vacation this week. The next term will begin Monday, with Miss Gertrude Maine of Preston, teacher.

V. H. Palmer and Ruben Kemmer are visiting Dr. A. Stanley Maine in Killingly.

Farmers are plowing and are about ready to sow their oats.

Wild geese are seen in large flocks flying to the north, every day.

The Shunoc Improvement Society has thirty-seven members and the list is growing.

SOUTH LYME

Tower Operator Skibbe Takes Place on Air Line—Personals.

Byron Phillips was in New Haven on business this week.

Mrs. David Champlin was visiting her son in Norwich recently.

James Slate returned to New Haven after spending two weeks' vacation with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Slate.

Mrs. F. C. Payne visited in New London this week.

Miss Wilemina Douglas of New London visited here recently.

William Stevens of Old Saybrook was calling on C. H. Waterhouse and other friends recently.

Goes to Air Line Tower.

John Skibbe has resigned as tower operator in this place to go to New Haven, on the air line.

E. P. Stanhope is on a lengthy business trip to Hartford, Vt.

Mrs. Ellen King of New Haven is visiting her brother, F. C. Payne.

Miss Annie Spears of Black Hall was the guest of friends here Wednesday.

LAUREL GLEN

School opened Monday after one week vacation.

Mrs. Victor Busch has been ill and under the care of a physician.

Mr. Kavanagh visited Sunday with his sister, Mrs. George Hill.

Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Mabel and Mrs. Attaway Main attended the evangelistic meetings in Ashaway Sunday evening.

Horace Palmer was a visitor in Westerly Tuesday.

MONTVILLE

Albert Kistner and his sister, Mrs. Southwick of Middletown, Conn., were here to attend the funeral of their uncle, J. C. Carlton.

Mrs. A. E. Bonney and Mrs. Edward Kelly were visiting Mrs. William Adams of New London Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Dionis will spend the week end in Providence and Central Falls, R. I.

C. H. Bartlett of North Stonington is spending a few days with his family in Uncasville.

The special union meetings have been continued through their second week with a good attendance and much interest.

The preachers of the week have been Rev. S. M. Cathart of Westerly, Rev. C. R. McNally of New London, Rev. F. C. A. Jones of Westerly, Rev. W. R. Stewart of Stamford and Rev. F. E. Blakeman of Cromwell.

The singing, which has been inspiring, has been led by one of the local pastors, Rev. F. M. Hollister.

The series will close Sunday evening with preaching by Rev. A. R. Costa, D. D. of Hartford.

Next Sunday is to be observed in town as Go-to-Church day. Go-to-Church tags are being distributed and many are wearing them.

Invitations have been received here for the wedding of Thomas Denison Hewitt and Miss Henrietta Silliman Tama on April 25 in Grace church, Brooklyn, N. Y.

The bride-elect is the elder son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas H. Hewitt, summer residents of North Stonington.

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford W. Caswell and infant daughter, Laura.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Caswell.

Hattie White, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. Frank White, has nearly recovered from scarlet fever and the child is now out of quarantine.

The Wheeler family, who opened the spring term Tuesday.

Miss Dora T. Maher, preceptress of the Wheeler school, spent the vacation visiting relatives in Providence and Massachusetts.

George A. Pendleton has been ill with a severe attack of grip.

Arthur B. Chambers, after spending two weeks with his brother, Rev. G. H. Chambers, has gone to New Hampshire.

Levy, Lucian Drury attended the April meeting of the New London county Baptist ministers conference held at Waterbury Monday.

A family named Johnson has moved into the tenement house of Mrs. D. W. Bissell.

The state board of education has ruled on the pending case of George F. Main Feb. 2 in regard to school transportation for his children, he having taken exception to the ruling of the town board in the matter.

The state board sustains the action of the town board.

The special union meetings have been continued through their second week with a good attendance and much interest.

The preachers of the week have been Rev. S. M. Cathart of Westerly, Rev. C. R. McNally of New London, Rev. F. C. A. Jones of Westerly, Rev. W. R. Stewart of Stamford and Rev. F. E. Blakeman of Cromwell.

The singing, which has been inspiring, has been led by one of the local pastors, Rev. F. M. Hollister.

The series will close Sunday evening with preaching by Rev. A. R. Costa, D. D. of Hartford.

Next Sunday is to be observed in town as Go-to-Church day. Go-to-Church tags are being distributed and many are wearing them.

Invitations have been received here for the wedding of Thomas Denison Hewitt and Miss Henrietta Silliman Tama on April 25 in Grace church, Brooklyn, N. Y.

The bride-elect is the elder son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas H. Hewitt, summer residents of North Stonington.

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford W. Caswell and infant daughter, Laura.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Caswell.

Hattie White, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. Frank White, has nearly recovered from scarlet fever and the child is now out of quarantine.

The Wheeler family, who opened the spring term Tuesday.

Miss Dora T. Maher, preceptress of the Wheeler school, spent the vacation visiting relatives in Providence and Massachusetts.

George A. Pendleton has been ill with a severe attack of grip.

Arthur B. Chambers, after spending two weeks with his brother, Rev. G. H. Chambers, has gone to New Hampshire.

Levy, Lucian Drury attended the April meeting of the New London county Baptist ministers conference held at Waterbury Monday.

A family named Johnson has moved into the tenement house of Mrs. D. W. Bissell.

The state board of education has ruled on the pending case of George F. Main Feb. 2 in regard to school transportation for his children, he having taken exception to the ruling of the town board in the matter.

The state board sustains the action of the town board.

The special union meetings have been continued through their second week with a good attendance and much interest.

The preachers of the week have been Rev. S. M. Cathart of Westerly, Rev. C. R. McNally of New London, Rev. F. C. A. Jones of Westerly, Rev. W. R. Stewart of Stamford and Rev. F. E. Blakeman of Cromwell.

The singing, which has been inspiring, has been led by one of the local pastors, Rev. F. M. Hollister.

The series will close Sunday evening with preaching by Rev. A. R. Costa, D. D. of Hartford.

Next Sunday is to be observed in town as Go-to-Church day. Go-to-Church tags are being distributed and many are wearing them.

Invitations have been received here for the wedding of Thomas Denison Hewitt and Miss Henrietta Silliman Tama on April 25 in Grace church, Brooklyn, N. Y.

The bride-elect is the elder son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas H. Hewitt, summer residents of North Stonington.

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford W. Caswell and infant daughter, Laura.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Caswell.

Hattie White, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. Frank White, has nearly recovered from scarlet fever and the child is now out of quarantine.

The Wheeler family, who opened the spring term Tuesday.

Miss Dora T. Maher, preceptress of the Wheeler school, spent the vacation visiting relatives in Providence and Massachusetts.

George A. Pendleton has been ill with a severe attack of grip.

Arthur B. Chambers, after spending two weeks with his brother, Rev. G. H. Chambers, has gone to New Hampshire.

Levy, Lucian Drury attended the April meeting of the New London county Baptist ministers conference held at Waterbury Monday.

A family named Johnson has moved into the tenement house of Mrs. D. W. Bissell.

The state board of education has ruled on the pending case of George F. Main Feb. 2 in regard to school transportation for his children, he having taken exception to the ruling of the town board in the matter.

The state board sustains the action of the town board.

The special union meetings have been continued through their second week with a good attendance and much interest.

The preachers of the week have been Rev. S. M. Cathart of Westerly, Rev. C. R. McNally of New London, Rev. F. C. A. Jones of Westerly, Rev. W. R. Stewart of Stamford and Rev. F. E. Blakeman of Cromwell.

The singing, which has been inspiring, has been led by one of the local pastors, Rev. F. M. Hollister.

The series will close Sunday evening with preaching by Rev. A. R. Costa, D. D. of Hartford.

Next Sunday is to be observed in town as Go-to-Church day. Go-to-Church tags are being distributed and many are wearing them.

Invitations have been received here for the wedding of Thomas Denison Hewitt and Miss Henrietta Silliman Tama on April 25 in Grace church, Brooklyn, N. Y.

The bride-elect is the elder son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas H. Hewitt, summer residents of North Stonington.

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford W. Caswell and infant daughter, Laura.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Caswell.

Hattie White, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. Frank White, has nearly recovered from scarlet fever and the child is now out of quarantine.

The Wheeler family, who opened the spring term Tuesday.

Miss Dora T. Maher, preceptress of the Wheeler school, spent the vacation visiting relatives in Providence and Massachusetts.

George A. Pendleton has been ill with a severe attack of grip.

Arthur B. Chambers, after spending two weeks with his brother, Rev. G. H. Chambers, has gone to New Hampshire.

Levy, Lucian Drury attended the April meeting of the New London county Baptist ministers conference held at Waterbury Monday.

A family named Johnson has moved into the tenement house of Mrs. D. W. Bissell.

The state board of education has ruled on the pending case of George F. Main Feb. 2 in regard to school transportation for his children, he having taken exception to the ruling of the town board in the matter.

The state board sustains the action of the town board.

The special union meetings have been continued through their second week with a good attendance and much interest.

The preachers of the week have been Rev. S. M. Cathart of Westerly, Rev. C. R. McNally of New London, Rev. F. C. A. Jones of Westerly, Rev. W. R. Stewart of Stamford and Rev. F. E. Blakeman of Cromwell.

The singing, which has been inspiring, has been led by one of the local pastors, Rev. F. M. Hollister.

The series will close Sunday evening with preaching by Rev. A. R. Costa, D. D. of Hartford.

Next Sunday is to be observed in town as Go-to-Church day. Go-to-Church tags are being distributed and many are wearing them.

Invitations have been received here for the wedding of Thomas Denison Hewitt and Miss Henrietta Silliman Tama on April 25 in Grace church, Brooklyn, N. Y.

The bride-elect is the elder son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas H. Hewitt, summer residents of North Stonington.

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford W. Caswell and infant daughter, Laura.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Caswell.

Hattie White, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. Frank White, has nearly recovered from scarlet fever and the child is now out of quarantine.

The Wheeler family, who opened the spring term Tuesday.

Miss Dora T. Maher, preceptress of the Wheeler school, spent the vacation visiting relatives in Providence and Massachusetts.

George A. Pendleton has been ill with a severe attack of grip.

Arthur B. Chambers, after spending two weeks with his brother, Rev. G. H. Chambers, has gone to New Hampshire.

Levy, Lucian Drury attended the April meeting of the New London county Baptist ministers conference held at Waterbury Monday.

A family named Johnson has moved into the tenement house of Mrs. D. W. Bissell.

The state board of education has ruled on the pending case of George F. Main Feb. 2 in regard to school transportation for his children, he having taken exception to the ruling of the town board in the matter.

The state board sustains the action of the town board.

The special union meetings have been continued through their second week with a good attendance and much interest.

The preachers of the week have been Rev. S. M. Cathart of Westerly, Rev. C. R. McNally of New London, Rev. F. C. A. Jones of Westerly, Rev. W. R. Stewart of Stamford and Rev. F. E. Blakeman of Cromwell.

The singing, which has been inspiring, has been led by one of the local pastors, Rev. F. M. Hollister.

The series will close Sunday evening with preaching by Rev. A. R. Costa, D. D. of Hartford.

Next Sunday is to be observed in town as Go-to-Church day. Go-to-Church tags are being distributed and many are wearing them.

Invitations have been received here for the wedding of Thomas Denison Hewitt and Miss Henrietta Silliman Tama on April 25 in Grace church, Brooklyn, N. Y.

The bride-elect is the elder son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas H. Hewitt, summer residents of North Stonington.

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford W. Caswell and infant daughter, Laura.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Caswell.

Hattie White, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. Frank White, has nearly recovered from scarlet fever and the child is now out of quarantine.

The Wheeler family, who opened the spring term Tuesday.

Miss Dora T. Maher, preceptress of the Wheeler school, spent the vacation visiting relatives in Providence and Massachusetts.

George A. Pendleton has been ill with a severe attack of grip.

Arthur B. Chambers, after spending two weeks with his brother, Rev. G. H. Chambers, has gone to New Hampshire.

Levy, Lucian Drury attended the April meeting of the New London county Baptist ministers conference held at Waterbury Monday.

A family named Johnson has moved into the tenement house of Mrs. D. W. Bissell.

The state board of education has ruled on the pending case of George F. Main Feb. 2 in regard to school transportation for his children, he having taken exception to the ruling of the town board in the matter.

The state board sustains the action of the town board.

The special union meetings have been continued through their second week with a good attendance and much interest.

The preachers of the week have been Rev. S. M. Cathart of Westerly, Rev. C. R. McNally of New London, Rev. F. C. A. Jones of Westerly, Rev. W. R. Stewart of Stamford and Rev. F. E. Blakeman of Cromwell.

The singing, which has been inspiring, has been led by one of the local pastors, Rev. F. M. Hollister.

The series will close Sunday evening with preaching by Rev. A. R. Costa, D. D. of Hartford.

Next Sunday is to be observed in town as Go-to-Church day. Go-to-Church tags are being distributed and many are wearing them.

Invitations have been received here for the wedding of Thomas Denison Hewitt and Miss Henrietta Silliman Tama on April 25 in Grace church, Brooklyn, N. Y.

The bride-elect is the elder son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas H. Hewitt, summer residents of North Stonington.

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford W. Caswell and infant daughter, Laura.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Caswell.

Hattie White, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. Frank White, has nearly recovered from scarlet fever and the child is now out of quarantine.

The Wheeler family, who opened the spring term Tuesday.

Miss Dora T. Maher, preceptress of the Wheeler school, spent the vacation visiting relatives in Providence and Massachusetts.

George A. Pendleton has been ill with a severe attack of grip.

Arthur B. Chambers, after spending two weeks with his brother, Rev. G. H. Chambers, has gone to New Hampshire.

Levy, Lucian Drury attended the April meeting of the New London county Baptist ministers conference held at Waterbury Monday.

A family named Johnson has moved into the tenement house of Mrs. D. W. Bissell.

The state board of education has ruled on the pending case of George F. Main Feb. 2 in regard to school transportation for his children, he having taken exception to the ruling of the town board in the matter.

The state board sustains the action of the town board.

The special union meetings have been continued through their second week with a good attendance and much interest.

The preachers of the week have been Rev. S. M. Cathart of Westerly, Rev. C. R. McNally of New London, Rev. F. C. A. Jones of Westerly, Rev. W. R. Stewart of Stamford and Rev. F. E. Blakeman of Cromwell.

The singing, which has been inspiring, has been led by one of the local pastors, Rev. F. M. Hollister.

The series will close Sunday evening with preaching by Rev. A. R. Costa, D. D. of Hartford.

Next Sunday is to be observed in town as Go-to-Church day. Go-to-Church tags are being distributed and many are wearing them.

Invitations have been received here for the wedding of Thomas Denison Hewitt and Miss Henrietta Silliman Tama on April 25 in Grace church, Brooklyn, N. Y.

The bride-elect is the elder son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas H. Hewitt, summer residents of North Stonington.

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford W. Caswell and infant daughter, Laura.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Caswell.

Hattie White, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. Frank White, has nearly recovered from scarlet fever and the child is now out of quarantine.

The Wheeler family, who opened the spring term Tuesday.

Miss Dora T. Maher, preceptress of the Wheeler school, spent the vacation visiting relatives in Providence and Massachusetts.

George A. Pendleton has been ill with a severe attack of grip.

Arthur B. Chambers, after spending two weeks with his brother, Rev. G. H. Chambers, has gone to New Hampshire.

Levy, Lucian Drury attended the April meeting of the New London county Baptist ministers conference held at Waterbury Monday.

A family named Johnson has moved into the tenement house of Mrs. D. W. Bissell.

The state board of education has ruled on the pending case of George F. Main Feb. 2 in regard to school transportation for his children, he having taken exception to the ruling of the town board in the matter.

The state board sustains the action of the town board.

The special union meetings have been continued through their second week with a good attendance and much interest.

The preachers of the week have been Rev. S. M. Cathart of Westerly, Rev. C. R. McNally of New London, Rev. F. C. A. Jones of Westerly, Rev. W. R. Stewart of Stamford and Rev. F. E. Blakeman of Cromwell.

The singing, which has been inspiring, has been led by one of the local pastors, Rev. F. M. Hollister.

The series will close Sunday evening with preaching by Rev. A. R. Costa, D. D. of Hartford.